GREAT FALLS STUDENT
WINS YEAR'S TRIP TO GERMANY

MISSOULA--

Robert S. Lock, a third-year German student at Great Falls Public High School, has been named the state's top prize winner of a trip to Germany in the National High School German Contest sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of German.

Frederick W. Thomson, an instructor of German at the University of Montana who is secretary-treasurer of the state AATG chapter, said Lock was one of 50 students throughout the nation awarded a trip to Germany by the Pedagogical Exchange Service of the Federal Republic of Germany.

Testing of 9,000 high school students in second-, third- and fourth-year German classes determined the contest winners. The Educational Testing Service, Princeton, N.J., assisted in the testing.

Lock, who is a student of Otto H. Grosse at Great Falls High, will leave Great Falls by bus June 20, and will be welcomed in Nuremburg, Germany, by the family he will stay with while attending the high school or "gymnasium" there for a year.

Other regional winners who competed with Lock for first-place honors included Robert S. Hill, a student at Billings Senior High; Carmen E. Stevenson, C.M. Russel High, Great Falls; and Debora Lamb, Sentinel High, and Michael H. Wheeler, Hellgate High, Missoula.
